

FEBRUARY 2018

Did you know?

Welcome to February and National Chocolate Lovers Month. If you, too, are a lover of chocolate, let me recommend a trip to Hershey, Pennsylvania. Home of the chocolate factory bearing its' name, this small town boasts, in addition to the factory itself, a theme park and a museum. This interesting museum tells the story of chocolate and the life of Mr. Hershey.

The town of Hershey was literally created by Mr. Hershey, to help house and support his employees.

The life of the founder of the Hershey empire somewhat parallels the life of David Sayre. Milton Hershey, and his wife, Catherine (who, fittingly, met in a candy store), were unable to have children. They created a pre K-12 school, which is still operating today.

Happy Valentine's Day!
